Staying calm and relaxed is something to do in the second trimester, as your baby is moving into its third trimester. During this period you are more likely to get pregnancy-related back pain. So here, we will help you find ways to get yourself relaxed. Relaxing mind, body and soul There are a range of ways to relax, such as deep breathing, meditation and reading inspirational books. You could also turn to listening to music. If you are at work during your pregnancy, you might want to plan a few minutes of relaxation time per day. You could set aside a couple of minutes after work each day to just take a deep breath and feel the baby move inside you. You could also read a book or watch a movie on a paid or borrowed mobile phone. Meditation c6a93da74d
